To

The District Prohibition Officer

Bellary.

The humble Confidential Petition of Potluri Subbamma wife of late Pc Potluri Ankaiah, native of Podalakur village Kapur Taluq of Nellore district.

Respected Sir.

I beg to state that my husband Potluri Ankaiah who worked as a Prohibition Guard under your kind department was left us in these famine days. He was attacked by typhoid fevers while he was in the department at Adoney of Bellary dist. There he was applied a Leave and he was undergone treatment at Head Quarters Hospital Nellore. Due to my bad luck and as well as my daughter he was expired in the same Hospital leaving us helpless. I have no any Property to prolong my life with my poor daughter & My old parents are also with me. While my husband were in Head quarters Hospital I used to go and see him. In the mean while I was fell down and received a permanent defect in my leg so that I am unable to walk even. my old parents are giving me food at present by doing coolie work. I am leading a debit of Rs 200/- which I was spent when my husband was sick in Hospital. Due to having these debits I am leading a miserable life in these exhorbitant days with my old Parents & poor daughter.

I therefore request your honour to pity on my poor request and to help me with the credit balance of Rs 200 which is still on my husband's account, so that I may be able to lead a peaceful life with my poor Parents.

For which act of kindness I shall ever pray for your long life and prosperity.

I beg to remain.

Yours faithfully.

Potluri Subbamma.

St abstinence of P. subbamma widow of the deceased P.G

Statement of Poklum Subbamma of Podalakur widow of late P.C. P.C. Ankiah

My husband, while working as Prohibition guard at Adoni of Bellary district was attacked with fever and came to his native place and died on 12-4-57. My husband had 2 marriages. As the 1st wife died, she married me. He had a daughter by name Mahalakshmamma from his 1st wife who is now aged 17 years. Only 2 years after her marriage my husband died. She is now living with her husband. I had a daughter by name Ramalakshmamma aged 10 years. I have nobody to maintain me now. I have got my parents who are now living with me. They are living on daily wages and they are maintaining me and my daughter. When my husband was undergoing treatment in the Govt hospital at Nellore, I went there to look after him. Then I fell down from the steps and my leg became curved. and I cannot walk now without the assistance of a stick. Hence I am not in a position even to go for coolie work. Taking this for position, my parents are maintaining me by their daily earnings.

I have got a small thatched house for my living. My husband, while he was in service bought this house for Rs 200/-
I have not got any other movable & immovable property except this house.
My parents are aged about 50 & 60 years. With a view that the Govt would give some help to me, in due course, they are maintaining me and my daughter at present. My age is 30 years at present.
My husband did not subscribe for any fund during his service. The Record of the D.P.O. office may kindly be perused to ensure this. From the date on which my husband became sick I made a debt of Rs 60-00 from one Chenniah Sreeramulu & I am not in a position to [illegible] pleased
I request that Govt may [illegible] sanction compassionate gratuity to clear off my debts.

Report of the village officers of Pallakurichi

Prohibition guard Anbiah, while working in Adam's Peak of Bellary district came to his native place due to attack of fever and died there on 12.4.57. He married 2 wifes (1 wife died long back) He had a daughter by name Mahalakshmamma aged 17 years. She was married and living with her husband for the last 2 years. Subbamma is the 2nd wife of the deceased P.G. She has got a daughter by name Ramalakshmamma aged 10 years. Subbamma and her daughter are the only legal heirs to the deceased P.G. After the death of the P.G, she is living with her daughter in Ramanagaram. While P.G. died Anbiah was in service, he bought a house worth of Rs 200/-. Subbamma, her daughter and her parents are now residing in that house. Her parents are very old. After the death of Anbiah, they came to their daughter's house and are maintaining her by their coolly. While she was attending to her husband in sickness in the Govt Hospital at Nellore, she fell down from the steps and became lame. Now she cannot walk without a stick. She is not able to go even for cooly. So she is solely depending on her parents. There is no hope that they would maintain her throughout her life 10 She has no other movable & immovable property except this small house. It may be found out from the office of the District Registrar office, Bellary whether she subscribed to any fund. So far as we know she did not insure his life. Subbamma made a debt of Rs 60-0-0 from merchant chenchus Sreeramulu. So the mother and child can live if any help is done to them

Statement of A Venkataramanni father of P. Subbamma, widow of the deceased PW 17 Subbiah.

I am a native of Mittatanahalli of Gudur taluk. I gave my daughter Subbamma in 2nd marriage to P.G. Subbiah. My daughter Subbamma has got a young daughter aged 10 years, by name Ramalakshmamma. My son-in-law died on 12-4-51. As my daughter is in a very helpless condition I and my wife are maintaining her and her daughter by our daily wages. With a hope that Govt would sanction some compassionate gratuity for her maintenance, we are maintaining her and her daughter for the present.
